For the Penguin/Viking In the Shadow of Young Girls in Flower, James Grieve swings a bit wilder than Lydia Davis did for Swann's Way. Where Scott Moncrieff translated petite bande (of girls) with "little band," Grieve uses "little gang." As an Australian, he is perhaps unaware of how "gang" sounds to an American ear.

In Jungian psychology, the shadow, (also known as id, shadow aspect, or shadow archetype) is either an unconscious aspect of the personality that the conscious ego does not identify in itself; or the entirety of the unconscious, i.e., everything of which a person is not fully conscious. In short, the shadow is the unknown side. From one perspective, the shadow "is roughly equivalent to the ...
